CHEYENNE FRONTIER DAYS™ 2024 GROUND RULES - ALL EVENTS

3/5/2024

GENERAL

The Cheyenne Frontier Days™ Committee assumes no responsibility or liability for injury or damage to the person, property, or stock of any participant, whether a contestant or not. Each participant, by the act of participation, waives all claims against the committee for injuries he/she or his/her property may sustain.

Every contestant must pick up his/her number and sign a release at the Contestants Office prior to competing.

While competing, Contestants must wear their own numbers securely pinned on their back in a manner that is visible to the officials and event staff. WPRA will issue a $50 fine for individuals/members who do not have their number securely pinned on their back and visible.

Only entered contestants and one companion allowed with contestant number and CFO issued companion pass. Said companion pass will be issued on request by contestant at check in. PRCA gold card holders can obtain a CFO issued companion pass for gate access at the Contestants Office.

Parking Passes will only be valid for days of competition, semi-finals and finals qualifiers will have to get another parking pass. Please check with the Rodeo Office for other local accommodations with stalls and camping facilities or for circumstances necessary for extended parking.

Due to large crowds coming and leaving Frontier Park for the rodeo and night show, Traffic will not be conducive to large vehicles and horse trailers from 4 to 5 pm and 7 pm to 1 am. Contestants can park at the CFO offsite parking lot off 1-25, 1602 Southwest Drive, Cheyenne 82007. Dry camping, stalls and water for animals will be available.

A limited number of horse stalls are available and will be available in specified barns on a first come, first serve basis for entered contestants. Feed Buckets cannot be used to "reserve" or mark a stall as taken. Buckets or any other device determined by the committee to be in stall area for sole purpose of saving a space will be removed from the stall by the Committee. Anyone altering the stall dividers will be ejected from the stall barns.

In any event, a contestant not ready when called during a performance or section of qualifying round will be fined $100, and/or may be disqualified from that go round in which the offense is committed. Timed event contestants are required to be in the box as the preceding animal is released and in the process of leaving the arena. Riding event contestants are required to be ready. • •

The Cheyenne Frontier Days All Around Champion will be the Cowboy or Cowgirl who wins the most total money in two or more events. In the event no one wins money in more than one event, it will be the Cowboy or Cowgirl who wins the most total money while entered in more than one event. • •

Awards in the Wild Horse Race and the Rookie Saddle Bronc Riding will not be duplicated. Wild Horse Race and Rookie Saddle Bronc Riding will flip to determine who gets the buckle or the championship package.

(1) All Events: Contestants advancing to the Semi-Finalists from Quarter Finals, July 20, 21 & 22 will compete (slowest to fastest) in the Saturday, July 27 Semi-Final. Semi-Finalists from Quarter Finals, July 23, 24 & 25 will compete (slowest to fastest) in the Friday, July 26 Semi-Final.

- (2) In Riding Events, the re-ride pool at Cheyenne Frontier Days will be created with animals previously available in the draw before using animals selected as re-rides in the forward performances.
- (3) No horses are permitted in the arena on qualifying round mornings prior to the start of qualifying rounds. There will be no exercising of horses in the arena prior to rodeo, night show or qualifying rounds. PRCA, WPRA Arena Rules and CFO ground rules are in effect in the ready area, Chute 9 area and north end of the arena.
- (4) Rule R11.1.2.1 pertaining to timed event chute gate has been waived and will not be applied at Cheyenne.
- (5) TD, SW, TR, SR, Breakaway - Qualifying/Performances: Pens of animals for all qualifying rounds or performances will be set by the event rep or designee in conjunction with stock contractor, chute boss, arena director and PRCA judges. To best ensure an even set for each day the animals will be visually inspected and set accordingly and may be done prior to the first performance or first qualifying round as long as there is one animal per entry plus adequate extras.
- (6) The timed event stock draw may be done the evening prior to the Qualifying Round, Quarter Finals/Performance, or Finals but the results of the draw will not be posted until one and a half hours prior to Qualifying Round, Quarter Finals/Performance, or Finals. All Timed Event stock draws are posted at Chute 9 only. All timed event draws will be done by computer in the secretary's office.
- (7) Splits for Timed Events - All splits will be made at Chute 9 one hour prior to start of qualifying round and one hour before performance. Any splits not turned in as stated will be subject to not ready to compete fine. Arena size requires position splits not to be consistent with PRCA rules. Please check your position after splits, if not workable – inform chute-boss prior to the loading of cattle.
- (8) Any animal in timed events that escapes from Chute 9 or must be replaced for any reason, contestant will move to the bottom of the list in all the rounds, to be drawn from extra cattle and NOT according to misdraw procedure. Escaped animals go back into the herd.
