With the exception of the Breakaway Roping competition, the RODEOHOUSTON Super Series will feature five (5) Super Series of three (3) rounds each (a round will be completed at each performance) with eight (8) contestants per event; two (2) Semifinal Rounds with ten (10) contestants per event each round; one Wild Card Round with twelve (12) contestants per event; and a Championship Round featuring ten (10) contestants per event. This format will result in 40 contestants total per event.

The Breakaway Roping competition will be featured in five (5) RODEOHOUSTON Super Series of one (1) round each with eight (8) contestants per event; and one Semifinal Round (Semifinal 2) with the top two (2) from each Super Series, based on total money earned, competing; and a Championship Shootout featuring the top four (4) contestants from Semifinal Round 2.

The 2022 RODEOHOUSTON Super Series is an independent production of the Houston Livestock Show and Rodeo, Inc. (“HLSR”).

- 1.2 Contestant Agreement references the binding legal agreement (RODEOHOUSTON Super Series Contestant Agreement) between each contestant and HLSR. Each contestant accepts the terms of the Contestant Agreement upon entering the RODEOHOUSTON Super Series and the Contestant Agreement is executed by HLSR upon HLSR’s acceptance of the contestant’s entry application.
- 1.3 RODEO RULES refers to the PRCA Rulebook that will be in effect for the Bareback Riding, Bull Riding, Saddle Bronc Riding, Steer Wrestling, Team Roping and Tie-Down Roping events; whereas the WPRA Rule Book will be in effect for the women’s Barrel Racing and Breakaway Roping events. ## 2. CONFLICT OF DOCUMENTS AND RULE BOOK

Order of Precedence

In the event of conflict, the Contestant Agreement prevails over the Rules of Competition (commonly referred to as “Ground Rules”) and the RODEO RULES. The Rules of Competition prevails over RODEO RULES.

3. ENTRIES

- 3.1 RODEOHOUSTON Super Series entry fees are $500 per contestant per event (see 3.2 immediately below).

- 3.2 In compensation for each contestant agreeing to the terms, conditions and grant of rights detailed in the Contestant Agreement, HLSR will pay all 2022 RODEOHOUSTON Super Series entry fees (this is in addition to other monetary opportunities detailed in the Contestant Agreement).

4. ENTRY SELECTION AND INVITATION PROCESS

4.1 The 2022 RODEOHOUSTON Super Series is an invitational championship rodeo featuring the top athletes in the sport of rodeo. HLSR management and staff have the sole authority and responsibility to determine the list of invitees to participate in each Super Series and to determine, on a case-by-case basis, which alternate entry will replace any originally invited contestant that chooses not to enter or decides, for whatever reason, not to compete. The initial invited list is determined using the following criteria (see 4.2). Invitations and alternate entry openings will be published by HLSR in fall 2021. HLSR will not be subject to entry rules and procedures of any sanctioning organizations to include, but not limited to, grace periods and office rules. Once entries are accepted and confirmed, HLSR will assign the respective Super Series competition and performance dates. HLSR will not move or change competition dates due to conflicts with other events; except for athletes that qualify/advance to The American finals and are conflicted with their Super Series assignment. (Athletes that advance to The American finals, and are conflicted with their Super Series assignment, must find another athlete to trade Super Series and contact HLSR with the trade directly, by February 28, 2022.) HLSR has, in its sole discretion, the right and ability to change competition dates when needed (due to rare and/or extenuating circumstances). - (c) Alternates will be accepted up to 24 hours (Central Time) prior to the start of each Super Series (except in team roping).
  - i. HLSR management, at its sole discretion, may accept (in extenuating circumstances) an alternate up to four (4) hours prior to the start of each Super Series or up to four (4) hours prior to the start of any round within a Super Series. HLSR management will not accept an alternate replacement for a contestant who is injured in a previous Super Series round unless it is completely obvious that the contestant's injury will preclude the contestant from competing again in the respective Super Series or from advancing to the Semifinal rounds.
  - ii. In the event that a team roping partner must turn out, during any round of their respective Super Series within the 24 hour mark, HLSR management will work with the partner to either accept an "entered" alternate, or to select an alternate from another event, as long as the selected alternate is not competing in team roping. The injured/released contestant will not be eligible to compete any further in 2022. A new team will be formed with the original partner and the alternate/replacement partner (of the respective header/heeler that turned out). The new team will compete and may be eligible to advance on earnings/times/standings earned by the new team only. Any money won by the original team will count toward World Standings, but will not count toward advancement, nor will those dollars be reflected in any displays.
  - iii. In the event that a team roping partner must turn out, due to a medical release/injury, in a Semifinal or Wild Card round, the next qualified header or heeler that did not advance, from the injured contestant's super series will advance and a new team will be formed. This team will compete together through the remainder of the competition. The injured/released contestant will not be eligible to compete any further in 2022. The new team will assume the earnings/times/standings/etc. of the original team, prior to the injury, for display purposes and tie-breaking procedures only. Only the official dollars earned/won by the respective header or heeler (individually) will count toward World Standings.
  - iv. In the event that a team roping partner must turn out, due to a medical release/injury, in the championship round, the next qualified header or heeler that did not advance, from the injured contestant's Semifinal will advance and a new team will be formed. This team will compete together through the remainder of the competition. The injured/released contestant will not be eligible to compete any further in 2022. The new team will assume the earnings/times/standings/etc. of the original team, prior to the injury, for display purposes and tie-breaking procedures only. Only the official dollars earned/won by the respective header or heeler (individually) will count toward World Standings.
